

The Mary Field and Vincent deP. Goubeau Lecture on Women's Contribution to Church and Society

Joan S. Dawber, S.C.

A Modern Response to Modern Day
Slavery: The Ministry of LifeWay Network

Sr. Joan Dawber is the Executive Director of LifeWay Network, Inc. LifeWay Network is a not-for-profit corporation collaborating to combat human trafficking. Sr. Joan and LifeWay Network have membership in over nine coalitions working together to bring an end to human trafficking. Sr. Joan is the former co-chair of the New York Coalition of Religious Congregations – Stop Trafficking in Persons and serves on the Sisters of Charity Global Concerns Resource Team with a specific focus on human trafficking. She holds a M.A. in Theology and Pastoral Studies from Loyola University, Chicago and is a member of the Sisters of Charity (Halifax). In 2014, Sister Joan's work was recognized by St. John's University when she received the Caritas Medal at the Vincentian Convocation. She was also recognized for her work in a chapter of the book entitled: If Nuns Ruled The World by Joe Piazza.

Sunday, October 30

6 PM Dinner & Lecture

Saint Thomas More

The Catholic Chapel & Center at Yale University

268 Park Street New Haven, CT 06511 203 777 5537 stm.yale.edu