

SPOT THE SIGNS

HUMAN TRAFFICKING RED FLAGS

— QUICK REFERENCE FOR SECURITY PROFESSIONALS —

CONTROL:

Someone else controls where a person goes, who they talk to, their money, identification or communication.

PHYSICAL & BEHAVIORAL:

A person appears injured, exhausted, malnourished, poorly dressed for the weather or situation, fearful, anxious, submissive, distressed or avoids interaction.

PATTERNS:

Unusual routines, repeated patterns of activity or someone who appears to be following a scripted story.

LIFEWAY
NETWORK

ENDING HUMAN TRAFFICKING.
RECLAIMING LIFE.

SEE SOMETHING? KNOW WHAT TO DO.

QUICK REFERENCE FOR SECURITY PROFESSIONALS

- 1 NOTICE: Pay attention to concerning behaviors, interactions and patterns.

- 2 DOCUMENT: Document objective observations when appropriate, such as time, location, people involved, vehicles and other relevant details.

- 3 REPORT: Follow your organization's reporting and escalation procedures. Do not confront or investigate.

IMMEDIATE DANGER

CALL 911 IF THERE IS AN EMERGENCY

UNITED STATES

National Human Trafficking Hotline

1-888-373-7888

Text 233733 (BEFREE)

CANADA

Canadian Human Trafficking Hotline

1-833-900-1010

DO NOT CONFRONT OR ATTEMPT TO INVESTIGATE SUSPECTED TRAFFICKERS.

LIFEWAY
NETWORK

ENDING HUMAN TRAFFICKING.
RECLAIMING LIFE.